Newsletter

Thank you for attending our Read Write Inc parent information session on Wednesday. It was great to welcome so many parents into school. Over 40 parents attended!

Thank you for your positive evaluations. We are currently looking at the questions and queries that you have and will respond shortly. It is so important to have your views about your child's progress. If you were unable to attend the information will be available on the school website. There are lots of photographs of the event on Twitter which can also be found on the school website.

Keeping Safe Online

Please visit the school website for further information about keeping your child safe online.

PE Health and Safety

Please ensure that if your child has long hair it is tied back securely on PE days. Please remove your child's earrings before school.

Thank you
